

Robert DeAngelis

Robert J. DeAngelis, President of Louisville Tile Distributors, Inc. (founded in 1955, with nine locations in KY, TN, IN, OH).

Robert DeAngelis started at Louisville Tile in 1999 in administrative and general business rolls related to human resources, processes, and logistics, as Vice President of Administration. In 2008, Robert assumed the duties of President.

Since 2008, Louisville Tile has examined all aspects of its business, and in addition to stabilizing its core commercial and residential, has streamlined and focused itself as a specialty distributor. Prior to joining Louisville Tile, Robert worked in the medical construction, banking and legal businesses.

Robert holds degrees from Northwestern University and the University of Kentucky. While not a work, Robert enjoys spending time with his wife, Jacque, two teenage daughters, Mattie and Katie, and teaching, guiding and practicing fly fishing, and playing and practicing golf.