

John Cousins

John Cousins is Vice President of DalTile and is responsible for all customer and sales related activities.

John joined Dal-Tile in 1979 after a brief time as an accountant with Ernst & Ernst following his graduation from Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. John spent several years managing the Chicago area DalTile Sales Service Centers. When Dal-Tile merged with American Olean, he assumed the role of Regional Manager of the Home Center business. In 1997, John was named DalTile Midwest Region General Manager and in 2004, he accepted additional responsibility of General Manager for Canada.

John assumed his current role, Vice President of Sales in September 2008, he believes strongly in listening to customers and building a company team to exceed customer expectations.