

Harold Yarborough

Harold Yarborough of D&B Tile Distributors heads up 9 locations in south Florida. Harold is a second generation trained by his father David Yarborough, starting in the business helping his father as a young boy. When David was too busy creating D&B Tile he turned over his long term successful installation business to Harold. After eighteen years as a tile contractor Dave asked Harold to stop contacting and come to work for D&B Tile. Harold has been acting as General Manager for many years and CEO since his father retired.
